INTERNATIONAL SHORT FILM COMPETITION RULES
22nd San Sebastian Horror and Fantasy Film Festival
29 October – 4 November
2011

CONDITIONS

The selection committee will select the short films that will take part in the competition. To be eligible for this selection, short films must meet the following conditions:

- They must have been made after 1 January 2010.
- They must run for no longer than 30 min.
- They must be on the subject of fantasy or horror.
- Cinema and video formats are accepted (35mm, Betacam, HD, DCP).

To enter a film in the competition, it must be first registered at www.shortfilmdepot.com, and then follow the instructions to apply for the festival's international Competition. Please send us a screener of the film, together with a completed registration form, before August 15th, 2011.

AWARDS

Shorts participating in the competition are eligible for the following awards:

Audience Award for Best Short Film
The audience votes for the winning film. The number of points won by the winning film will be obtained by dividing the total number of points by the number of voting spectators.

International Jury Prize
The specialized international jury, which will be specially appointed for this occasion by the Organization, will decide on the Jury Prize for Best Short Film.

Nomination for the Golden Méliès for Best European Fantastic Short Film
The international jury will also nominate what it considers to be the best European short film for the Golden Méliès 2011, to be awarded by the European Fantastic Film Festivals Federation.

Youth Jury Prize
The youth jury, which will be specially appointed for this occasion by the Organization, will decide on the Youth Jury Prize for Best Short Film.
